

carpooling.com
CLICK. RIDE. SAVE.

carpooling.com GmbH runs Europe's largest ride sharing service with 1.6 Million registered users and 500,000 rides. Created in Munich in 2001, the site mitfahrgelegenheit.de became the number 1 carpooling site in Germany, and was quickly rolled out in other European countries, starting with Austria, Switzerland, Greece, Poland, Italy, France, the United Kingdom and Spain.

As we continue to grow our operations, we are looking for competent and passionate people to connect more people on their journeys together. We currently have the following open position in our headquarters in Munich, Germany:

PRODUCT MARKETING INTERN

Key Responsibilities:

- Promotion of carpooling.com in international markets
- Acquisition of new partners
- Writing of articles in selected blogs and websites
- Search Engine Optimization and Marketing
- Localization, testing and rollout of new features

Qualifications:

- Excellent computer skills
- Good knowledge of internet and social networks
- Strong writing abilities and excellent grammar
- Able to work independently in a highly dynamic environment
- Native English, German desirable, other languages a plus

We offer varied, challenging work within a dynamic, international environment. Our team is highly qualified in online technology and is dedicated to develop sustainable transportation alternatives and collaborative consumption. It is the chance to join an Internet company with exceptional growth opportunity.

If this profile matches your expertise, experience and aspirations, we'd be delighted to receive your application.